The Town of Bude in Water Color

Bude is a small seaside resort town in north Cornwall, England, UK, in the civil parish of Bude-Stratton and at the mouth of the River Neet (also known locally as the River Strat).

Summerleaze Beach

Located within easy walking distance of Bude town centre Summerleaze is a popular beach. It also has a large breakwater complete with tower protecting a small harbour and the mouth of the Bude canal with its massive lock gates. On the opposite side of the beach there's a sea-water bathing pool making for safe bathing whatever the conditions. Backing onto the beach are grassy downs and the River Neet.

Crooklets Beach

The small beach of Crooklets joins Summerleaze and Northcott Mouth at low tide forming a larger bay. The sandy beach is bordered to the north by Wrangle point and separated from Summerleaze beach to the south by a rocky outcrop. A popular family beach with plenty of facilities, Crooklets can get a little busy during the summer months. The beach received a Blue Flag Award in 2007
